B. REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Local Rule 701.1 - Qualifications:

a. General

Except as provided in subsection c of this rule, an attorney is qualified for admission to the bar of this District if the attorney is a member in good standing of the highest court of any State (or the District of Columbia) in which the attorney maintains his or her principal law office, or of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, is of good private and professional character, is familiar with the Code of Professional Responsibility, the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and these Local Rules and is willing, available and competent to accept appointments by the court to represent indigent parties in civil cases in this district unless the acceptance of such appointments is inconsistent with an attorney’s professional employment obligations as, for example, a government attorney.

b. Federal Government Attorneys

An attorney who is a member of a Federal Public Defender's Office, the Office of the United States Attorney for this District, or other federal government lawyer, is qualified for admission to the bar of this District for purposes relating to her or his employment if the attorney is a member in good standing of the highest court of any state (or the District of Columbia), is of good private and professional character, is familiar with the Code of Professional Responsibility, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure and these Local Rules.

c. Reciprocity with Other Jurisdictions

No attorney, other than a member of the Maryland bar, who maintains his or her principal law office outside the District of Maryland may be a member of the bar of this district if:

1. the United States District Court for the district in which the attorney maintains his or her principal law office has a local rule that denies membership in its bar to any attorney who is a member of the Maryland bar maintaining his or her principal law office in Maryland; and
2. the attorney is a member of the bar of that district.

d. Non-Maryland Lawyers Maintaining Any Law Office in Maryland

An attorney who is not a member of the Maryland Bar is not qualified for admission to the bar of this District if the attorney maintains any law office in Maryland.

2. You must be sponsored by a member of the bar of this Court. Your sponsor must have known you for at least one year (this requirement may be waived if the sponsor sets forth in his/her motion sufficient grounds to satisfy the court that he/she has reason to know you are qualified for admission). Local Rule 701.2.a (D. Md.).

C. ADMISSIONS APPLICATION PROCEDURE

E. ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

1. Local Rule 101.1.b - Pro Hac Vice

The Court may permit any attorney (except any attorney who is a member of the Maryland Bar or maintains any law office in Maryland) who is a member in good standing of the Bar of any other United States Court or of the highest court of any state to appear and participate as counsel in a particular civil case. Such permission shall not constitute formal admission to the Bar of this Court. However, an attorney admitted pro hac vice is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this Court. Any party represented by an attorney who has been admitted pro hac vice must also be represented by an attorney who has been formally admitted to the Bar of this court.

2. To be admitted pro hac vice, a member of the bar of this Court must move your admission.
3. It is not necessary for you and/or your sponsor to personally appear before this Court. If the motion is properly completed and the $50.00 fee paid, it will be approved by the Clerk or ruled upon by the judge to whom the case is assigned.
4. Local Rule 102.1.b.i (D. Md.) requires counsel to state at the bottom of all court papers their name, address, telephone number, fax number, and bar number (if applicable). This information must appear on your pro hac vice application in order for your application to be processed.
